

The University of Arizona Press invites book proposals from authors and editors of works appropriate to our list of publications. Before submitting a proposal, please see our seasonal catalogs to learn about our books.

Proposal Submission Guidelines

Please submit proposals via e-mail to the appropriate acquiring editor, including the following:

- Title, subtitle, and authorship
- Overview of the manuscript (subject, scope, organization, voice, and style)
- Significance of the manuscript (contribution to the field, why the book is needed, enduring appeal, timeliness)
- Intended audience and comparable titles
- Information about each author, including a short bio and brief narrative about their research
- Estimated length (word count) and anticipated number of photos and illustrations
- Expected delivery date of completed manuscript

In addition to the proposal, please send:

- Annotated table of contents
- Introduction and sample chapter (if completed)
- Curriculum vitae or résumé
